Liberator Office, and, if possible, obtain its return from Mr. Johnson to whom I learn Mr. L. Garrison has sent it for publication in his paper, if it has not been sent to me before you get this, in consequence of a letter from W. Phillips to Johnson.

From the part I have felt it to be my duty to take on the woman's question for I believe I am in very bad odour with not a few of our friends who have come hither from the United States - well I cannot help it - But of this you may be quite assured that that question will make no way in this Country & that the abolitionists of England will not fraternize with those who would link it on to the question of Emancipation - My best respects to the ladies of your acquaintance who are true to the cause.

Yours affectionately
W. Scott

I lent it to him for copy upon the distinct assurance that it should be returned to me the following morning. This he omitted to do, and, after waiting several days for it, I called upon him to obtain it, and found that he had parted with it to Professor Adams, but he again engaged to procure it and forward it to me. This he did not do, and, at length, having learnt that William Lloyd Garrison had possession of it I called upon him to procure it, when to my very great astonishment I learnt that he had sent it off to the United States! I make no comments on this affair, but as I am held responsible for its production to our Committee, and, as for several particular reasons, I am most anxious to obtain the original copy, I shall feel particularly obliged by you to do me the favor to call at the

My dear Friend

No doubt you will have heard from more than one of your Countrymen some general account of the great Anti-Slavery Conference held in London in June last, and of some of the vexed questions that were brought on for discussion - into these topics I will not enter at the present as my simple object is to request you to do me a favor. At the closing sitting of the Conference Wendell Phillips presented a protest which that Body refused to place on its records but ordered, after it had been read, to be laid on the Table. With the other documents it was by vote committed to the custody of the Committee of the British and Foreign Anti-Slavery Society. Unfortunately upon the <sup>written</sup> request of Wendell Phillips
